NORTHERN ITALY, SLOVENIA & CROATIA

Wines Without Borders

May 10-17, 2020

William Goodacre founded Tastes of Italy in 2000, gathering food and wine experts to create hugely fun foodie trips.

Inspirational Wines of Northern Italy, Slovenia & Croatia

In May 2020, take an immensely fun tour to discover the beauty of the Julian Alps and Istrian coast, tracing the arc of borders across Northern Italy, Slovenia and Croatia. Superb food and wine in fabulous settings, glorious Spring sunshine and warm welcomes await you at exceptional wine estates.

Celebrated wine maker and parliamentarian Manlio Collavini first introduced me this region, newly inspired by the opening of the borders in the 1990s. Join me and Wine LA's Ian Blackburn to discover the diverse culture, fabulous food and wine of three countries, staying in specially selected luxury hotels along the coast.

Simon Simčič owner of Medot wines. His grandfather, Miro Simčič, was the President of the Goriška Brda Cooperative Cellar. The wine tradition of the Simčič family goes back to 1812.
